PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This 19th-century bronze profile plaque of David is mounted on a custom wooden base, showcasing exquisite craftsmanship and fine attention to detail. The plaque captures David's noble and serene expression in high relief, a testament to the artist's skill in bronze work. The patina of the metal adds depth and character, enhancing the historical significance and artistic value of the piece. Measuring 9" x 5" x 16.5", this plaque is perfect for collectors of fine art and historical artifacts. It serves as a distinguished addition to any collection or as a standalone decorative piece, embodying the elegance of 19th-century European craftsmanship.
