PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

A captivating 19th-century antique French Trumeau mirror, featuring a richly detailed hand-painted hunting scene. The upper panel showcases a dramatic depiction of a dog in pursuit, capturing a bird amidst a lush landscape of foliage, exuding a sense of movement and vitality typical of traditional hunting motifs. Set within an elegant giltwood frame, the mirror beneath is framed with delicate beading, adding a touch of sophistication and balance to the piece. This Trumeau mirror, with its combination of artistry and reflective surface, serves as both a functional and decorative statement, ideal for adding a historic and artistic focal point to any interior. Measures: 29.5" x 66" x 1"
