Anthropomorphic Terracotta of a Standing Dog by Laurence Lenglare This is a remarkable Anthropomorphic Terracotta sculpture of a standing dog, skillfully crafted by the renowned artist Laurence Lenglare. The sculpture depicts an anthropomorphic dog, dressed in a traditional fez hat, and holding a book. The intricate details of the sculpture bring it to life, from the texture of the dog's clothes to the expression on its face. The use of terracotta as the medium adds to the sculpture's rustic charm, making it a unique and distinctive piece of artwork. The incorporation of human-like features to the dog gives it an unusual character and creates a whimsical and playful tone. This piece is a testament to the artist's imagination and skill, demonstrating the versatility and beauty of terracotta as a medium.
