PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This elegant French coffee table, dating to circa 1940, features a finely wrought gilt iron base with neoclassical detailing, including rope-twist swags, shell motifs, and gracefully scrolled legs. The top is fitted with an églomisé (reverse-painted) glass panel, bordered with a delicate gilt line that enhances the table's refined aesthetic. The combination of aged gilt finish and mirrored surface gives the piece a luminous, timeless quality. A perfect blend of sophistication and craftsmanship, this table serves as a statement piece in both traditional and eclectic interiors. Minor patina and light wear consistent with age.
