PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Pair of 19th Century French Gilt Bronze and Patinated Bronze Candlesticks An elegant pair of 19th century French Empire-style candlesticks, crafted in gilt and patinated bronze. Each features a finely cast, fluted black column rising from an ornate tripartite base adorned with acanthus leaves, scrolling feet, and classical detailing. The candle cups are richly decorated with a fish-scale pattern and foliate motifs, surmounted by flared drip pans with gadrooned edges. The contrast between the dark patina and bright gilt accents creates a dramatic, neoclassical aesthetic. Exceptional in craftsmanship and design, these candlesticks reflect the refined grandeur of early 19th century French decorative arts.
