PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

These European 19th-century Santos hands are exquisite religious artifacts, skillfully carved and painted to depict hands clutching coral. Representing a blend of devotion and artistry, these hands are traditionally associated with the depiction of saints in Catholic iconography.

The coral, believed to protect against evil, adds a unique and meaningful element. Each hand showcases fine details, from the lifelike rendering of fingers to the natural texture of the coral. Perfect for collectors of religious art and antiques, these Santos hands offer a glimpse into the rich spiritual and cultural heritage of 19th-century Europe. Measures: 3" x 3" x 13.5"
