PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This pair of extra-large mounted sea fans combines the organic elegance of natural marine forms with the opulence of 19th-century design. The intricate, branching patterns of the sea fans create a visually striking contrast against the richly detailed bases, which feature a sophisticated gilded and black finish. The bases, crafted in the 19th century, add a timeless sense of grandeur and artistry to these extraordinary pieces. Perfect as a statement-making decorative feature, these sea fans evoke the beauty of the ocean while seamlessly integrating with classical or eclectic interiors. Their bold scale and refined detailing make them a captivating addition to any space, blending the natural world with historic craftsmanship in a truly unique way.
