PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This exquisite suite comprises five green lacquered wood armchairs, each meticulously crafted in the elegant style of the Directoire and Consulate period. The chairs feature baluster front legs and saber-style rear legs, providing both stability and a refined silhouette. The rectangular openwork backs are adorned with a classic palmette motif, showcasing intricate craftsmanship, and are further accentuated by a carved cassiolette at the top, adding a touch of sophistication to each piece. The lacquered finish enhances the rich green hue, highlighting the timeless design and attention to detail that epitomize the era. Listed price is for one chair, we have 1 available. Measures: 23" x 20" x 34.5"
