PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This exquisite hand-carved moose antler piece is a truly unique and exceptional work of art originating from Indonesia. Carved from a single piece of moose antler sourced from North America, it is a testament to the skill and creativity of the artisan who carefully crafted it. The level of detail and precision in the carving is truly remarkable, with each curve and line carefully sculpted to create a stunning visual effect. The antler's natural texture is also used to great effect, adding depth and dimension to the overall composition. Despite its beauty and intricacy, this moose antler carving is also a sustainable piece of art. The antlers used in the creation of this piece were naturally shed by the moose, ensuring that no animals were harmed in the process. As such, this piece is not only a stunning addition to any collection, but also a responsible choice for those who are concerned about ethical and sustainable practices in the production of art. Overall, this moose antler carving is a unique and remarkable work of art that combines incredible craftsmanship with ethical and sustainable sourcing practices. Whether displayed as a focal point in a collection or used as a functional piece in the home, it is sure to impress and inspire all who see it. Measures: 3.5" x 3.5" x 1.5"
