PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

An important French 1970s table lamp featuring a striking combination of materials and design. The lamp is set on a triangular base, providing both stability and a modern aesthetic, which supports a sleek, tapered shaft. Crafted with a luxurious rosewood veneer and accented by elegant brass detailing, this piece reflects the bold yet refined design sensibilities of the era. Standing at 37.5" tall with a 14.25" diameter, it embodies the sophistication of 1970s craftsmanship and would make an ideal addition to any mid-century modern or contemporary interior. Perfect for collectors or those seeking a statement piece with vintage chic.
