PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This exquisite flower lamp by Maison Jansen from the 1970s embodies the French design house's flair for combining opulence with nature-inspired motifs. The lamp's body is meticulously crafted from polished brass, shaped into bold, sculptural flowers with intricately detailed, serrated leaves. These gleaming floral forms gracefully arch over a slender bamboo-style brass stem, further emphasizing the organic elegance of the piece. The lamp is anchored by a sturdy black lacquer base, designed to resemble a robust flower pot, adding a modern touch to the vintage aesthetic. This rare and iconic piece showcases the luxurious craftsmanship and innovative design synonymous with Maison Jansen, making it an eye-catching addition to any interior.
