PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Moose Antler Alligator – Wildly Cool, Naturally Kind This snappy little gator may look fierce, but it's 100% guilt-free! Hand-carved from naturally shed moose antlers (no hunting involved), this alligator sculpture brings the swamp to your shelf in the most sustainable way possible. The antlers are responsibly collected in the U.S., then shipped to Indonesia where expert artisans transform them into lifelike, textured masterpieces. With its detailed scales and cheeky grin, this eco-friendly reptile is equal parts wild charm and artisan skill. Perfect for collectors, nature lovers, or anyone who wants a bit of bite in their decor—without the teeth marks.
