PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This Narwhal Tusk replica measures an impressive 90 inches in length, making it a striking and eye-catching decorative piece. The tusk itself is intricately detailed and crafted to resemble the real thing, with a distinctive spiral shape and smooth, ivory-colored surface. The tusk is mounted on a sturdy round wooden base, which has a diameter of 12 inches, providing a stable foundation for the tusk to stand upright. The wooden base is also finished with a smooth, polished surface, adding to the overall aesthetic appeal of the piece. Whether displayed in a home, office, or other setting, this Narwhal Tusk replica is sure to draw attention and spark conversation. It's perfect for those who appreciate unique and exotic decor items, or for those who have an interest in marine life and the natural world. Please note that this is a replica item and not a real Narwhal Tusk, and as such it is ethically and legally obtained. Narwhal Tusk (replica) 90" on round wooden base (12" diameter)
