PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

A professionally mounted taxidermy stork, a White Stork (Ciconia ciconia), presented in a naturalistic foraging pose with its long red legs and slender bill contributing to a graceful, lifelike silhouette. The specimen displays well-preserved plumage in characteristic white, black, and charcoal tones, and is mounted on a textured rectangular base for stability and visual realism. This elegant large-format piece is ideal for natural history collections, educational displays, or interiors seeking a distinctive sculptural focal point. In very good condition overall with light, expected handling wear. Measures: 15" x 27" x 21" H
