PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This elegant 19th-century European baker's rack, most likely of Italian origin, is crafted from beautifully patinated brass, exuding Old World charm. The intricate scrollwork throughout the piece adds a touch of sophistication and artistry, with its graceful swirls and curves capturing the essence of European design. The rack's structure is both sturdy and ornamental, offering glass shelving that complements the ornate brass frame while providing practical display space. The pointed finials at the top add a regal touch, enhancing its presence in any room. Ideal as a decorative display or functional shelving, this baker's rack is a timeless addition for those who appreciate classical elegance and craftsmanship.
