PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Transform any space with this one-of-a-kind Black and Gold Wood Framed Oval Lenticular Eye—a mesmerizing art piece that blinks as you move! Measuring 6 inches by 9 inches, the beautifully crafted wooden frame boasts a sleek black finish highlighted with gold detailing, blending sophistication with intrigue. What sets this piece apart is the ingenious lenticular technology that animates the eye. As you shift perspectives, the eye blinks, evoking an almost lifelike presence that is at once playful, mysterious, and utterly captivating. This dynamic visual feature makes it more than just decor; it's an experience. Perfect as a standalone statement on your wall or an accent piece on a shelf, this versatile creation adapts seamlessly to eclectic, modern, or classic interiors. Use it as a conversation starter in a waiting room, a quirky addition to your office, or a touch of whimsy in your home. Whether you're an art enthusiast, tech lover, or collector of the extraordinary, this lenticular eye is bound to draw admiration.
