PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

19th-Century Painted Wooden and Caned Hall Stand / Boot Rack Console A charming late 19th-century jette habits hall stand, crafted in painted wood with a woven cane middle shelf, all original to the period. The piece features a sturdy rectangular form with arched side supports, a tray-like lower base designed for boots or shoes, and a caned upper shelf for additional storage. Side hooks allow for the placement of umbrellas, walking sticks, or canes, making it a versatile and functional furnishing. The rich green painted surface shows attractive wear consistent with age, enhancing its authentic patina. Solid, well-preserved, and ideal for organizing an entryway or dressing room with timeless character. Dimensions: 17.5" depth x 51.5" width x 51.5" height.
