PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This suite of four wall sconces, crafted in the 19th century, showcases an exquisite blend of molded, carved, and gilded wood, each boasting two arms of light. Notably, their design bears significant historical resonance, adorned with revolutionary symbols such as the iconic Phrygian cap and a bundle of fasces. These motifs evoke the spirit and ideals of the French Revolution, symbolizing liberty, equality, and fraternity. Through their intricate craftsmanship and symbolic representation, these sconces serve as tangible reminders of a transformative period in history, where the struggle for freedom and social justice reshaped the course of nations. Each Sconce Measures: 4.75" x 9.75" x 18.5"
