PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This mid-century French coffee table, signed Roger Capron, features a circular ceramic tile top decorated with imprinted botanical motifs, a signature element of Capron's work in Vallauris. The radially arranged tiles, rendered in warm ochre and sand tones, are impressed with stylized leaves and plant forms and divided by contrasting grout lines that reinforce the geometric design. Supported by a simple dark-stained wooden base, the table exemplifies Capron's celebrated fusion of nature-inspired decoration, artisanal ceramic technique, and modernist form, making it both a functional furnishing and a sculptural statement piece.
