PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Miao Minority Tribe Silver Torque Necklace, Three Flat Scroll Designs with Spirals Guizhou Province, China, Early to Mid-20th Century An exceptional handcrafted silver torque necklace from the Miao minority of southwestern China, featuring three gracefully curved flat bands intricately engraved with floral and cloud motifs, terminating in bold spiral finials. The triple-arched construction symbolizes harmony and strength, while the spirals—an enduring Miao motif—represent continuity, the cyclical nature of life, and the eternal bond between the human and natural worlds. Fashioned from silver and adorned with fine repoussé detailing, this piece exemplifies the remarkable artistry of Miao silversmiths, whose work bridges adornment and ancestral ritual. The necklace is mounted on a custom metal stand, emphasizing its sculptural form and rhythmic symmetry, transforming this ceremonial ornament into a striking display of cultural and aesthetic heritage. Dimensions: Height 15 in (38 cm); Width 14 in (36 cm); Depth 4 in (10 cm).
