PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

A charming mid-century patinated brass magazine or newspaper rack designed in the elegant form of a swan. The graceful structure features a delicately detailed brass neck and head, showcasing lifelike texture and a serene pose. The swan's body is formed by arched brass rods, creating compartments ideal for organizing magazines or newspapers. The design is elevated by its playful brass ball feet, which provide both stability and a touch of whimsy. This sculptural piece combines functionality with artistic flair, making it a perfect addition to any mid-century or eclectic interior. The warm patina enhances its vintage appeal, adding character and history to this unique object. Both decorative and practical, it is a timeless statement piece. Measures 22.5" x 11.5" x 16.5
