PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Captivating scene of a gentleman gracefully mounted on horseback, skillfully brought to life by artist Paul Magne De La Croix. Created in the year 1900, this evocative artwork not only captures a moment in time but also exudes a timeless charm that continues to captivate viewers. De La Croix's deft use of watercolors imbues the composition with rich and vibrant hues, enhancing the subtle nuances of the subject's expression and the horse's majestic presence. This exceptional piece not only serves as a visual window to the past but also stands as a testament to the artist's mastery in capturing the essence of both man and horse in harmonious equilibrium, making it a remarkable addition to any discerning collector's repertoire.
