PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Exquisite pair of 19th Century Copper and Bronze Greek Urns/Vases, reminiscent of the Hellenistic era, adorned with timeless symbols of wisdom and strength. Proudly displayed on each vessel is the revered owl of Athena, a symbol of wisdom and knowledge, standing watch over the treasures they hold within. The back-to-back Greek heads, adorned with two magnificent crowned horse heads facing opposite directions, speak to the classical elegance of ancient Greek artistry. These exceptional urns/vases, crafted with attention to detail, shall evoke the spirit of antiquity and add a touch of grandeur to any esteemed collection or opulent abode. A testament to the ingenuity of ancient artisans, these pieces offer an extraordinary glimpse into the legacy of Greek civilization and its enduring impact on the world of art and culture. Each has a small hole where it had been wired for lights. 18"H
