

CREEL AND GOW

TWISTING SPIRITS: A MIAO MINORITY TRIBE SILVER DRAGON NECKLACE

SKU: N/A

Categories: Decor, Objet & Sculptures

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Custom mounted Miao Minority Tribe Silver Twisted Necklace with Dragon Motifs This striking silver torque-style necklace originates from the Miao minority tribe of southwestern China, renowned for their exceptional silversmithing traditions passed down through generations. Crafted from solid silver, the necklace features a bold twisted rope form that culminates in elaborate repoussé and filigree dragon heads at the front, symbolizing strength, protection, and prosperity. The terminals are adorned with spiral and coiled wirework motifs, hallmarks of Miao craftsmanship that reflect both cultural symbolism and technical mastery. Worn during important festivals, weddings, and ceremonies, such necklaces were believed to carry protective qualities and serve as displays of family wealth and social status. With its intricate detail and sculptural presence, this piece exemplifies the artistry of Miao silversmiths and stands as both a powerful adornment and a cultural artifact.

Dimensions: depth 3" x width 9" x height 11"