Pair of Neoclassical Urn-Form Table Lamps Mid-20th century This elegant pair of vintage table lamps is modeled in the neoclassical taste, each fashioned as a classical urn with stylized looped handles and fluted detailing. The bodies are decorated in a restrained palette of cream, black, and gilt, evoking the vocabulary of ancient Roman and Greek decorative arts as reinterpreted in the 20th century. Raised on square bases with ebonized and gilded accents, the lamps combine sculptural presence with refined symmetry. Likely produced in the mid-20th century, possibly for the decorative or luxury interiors market, they exemplify the enduring appeal of neoclassical forms adapted for modern lighting. Dimensions (each, including shade): 15" L x 15" W x 38" H
