

CREEL AND GOW

VICTORIAN ERA BRASS BALANCE SCALE ON WOODEN BASE - LATE 19TH C ENGLISH ANTIQUE

---

SKU: d675_ES

Categories: Home Accents, Decor

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This elegant brass balance scale dates back to the late 19th century, a period marked by the precision and craftsmanship of Victorian England. The scale is meticulously crafted from solid brass, showcasing a beautifully aged patina that highlights its historical authenticity. The balance arm features a finely detailed design with openwork elements, leading to two brass pans—one suspended by delicate chains, and the other fixed with a unique curved arm. The scale rests on a sturdy wooden base, which has been carefully crafted to provide both stability and aesthetic appeal. The base's rich wood grain offers a warm contrast to the cool brass, enhancing the overall visual impact of the piece. This scale is not only a functional instrument but also a testament to the engineering and design of the era. The ornate finial at the top and the detailed pivot mechanism add to the charm and sophistication of this antique. Measures: 16" x 8" x 20.5"