PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

These exquisitely crafted Victorian-style humidors/boxes are masterfully carved from high-quality wood into the likeness of a dog's head. Each piece features a hinged top that smoothly opens to reveal a spacious hollow interior, ideal for storing a variety of items. These boxes are meticulously painted and stained, enhancing their unique character and visual appeal. Notably, they each include realistic glass eyes that are inset for a lifelike expression, along with precisely carved ears and snouts that underscore the artisan's remarkable attention to detail and skill. The craftsmanship extends to the intricate detailing of the facial features, making these pieces truly unique. These humidors/boxes not only serve as functional storage options but also as striking decorative elements, reflecting the elegant and elaborate design typical of the Victorian era. They are perfect for collectors and those who appreciate fine, detailed artistry, seamlessly blending practicality with aesthetic charm. 12" x 10" x 13"H
