PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This charming vintage rattan chaise offers both comfort and style, perfect for a relaxed outdoor or indoor setting. The chaise features a fully adjustable reclining back, allowing you to customize your lounging experience from upright to a fully reclined position. The pull-out leg rest seamlessly extends from beneath the seat, providing additional comfort and making it easy to transform the chaise from a chair to a full lounger. Crafted with intricate rattan weaving, the chaise showcases a beautiful herringbone pattern, accented by striking blue woven stripes that add a subtle yet stylish touch. The arms are thoughtfully designed with matching woven panels, ensuring consistent aesthetics and durability. The structure is supported by a sturdy rattan frame, known for its lightweight yet resilient properties, making it easy to move while also being robust enough for long-lasting use. The natural rattan finish enhances its vintage appeal, while the overall design reflects a blend of mid-century modern and classic tropical styles.
