PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Life-Size Wicker Display Bicycle, Mid-20th Century A whimsical, mid-century sculptural bicycle meticulously hand-woven from natural rattan, complete with spoked wheels, chain guard, rear carrier rack, saddle, handlebars, and a petite front basket—all rendered in wicker for visual impact rather than road use. Likely produced in the 1960s-70s as a shop-window prop or playful interior accent, the piece is lightweight enough to reposition yet large enough to command attention. For decorative display only. Dimensions (overall): 72 in L x 41 in H (approx. 15 in D at widest point). Local Pickup or White Glove Delivery Quote Only
